

The CONNECTOR

Bereatha Howard

We need to understand that all of us are responsible for what's happening to us.

When we stand together goodness comes to our community.

(The Miami Times, March 20-26, 2019 Commissioner Jean Monestine)

Being a long time resident of Miami, I have noticed that there are many resources available in our community; however, these resources may not get taken advantage of due to the lack of knowledge about them. The goal of this Capstone project was to find various ways to enhance communication tailored to the specific needs of our communities.

Bereatha Howard

Why I care

Some of the chief concerns of individuals involved in criminal and delinquent activities are the lack of jobs, poor economic infrastructure and inadequate housing, said Anthony Blackman, one of the Hunger 9 who's been conversing with some of the perps

What I learned

After careful consideration, the Brotherhood concluded that traditional awareness campaigns failed to make an impact on the community.

(The Miami Times)

What I will do

What can you do?

Bereatha Howard
Community Scholar
305-439-0007